MARIE JULIE JAHENNY

Marie Julie Jahenny is called “the Breton stigmatist” for reportedly having the marks of Christ’s crucifixion on her hands. There are many prophecies that have been attached to her name and there are a great host of stories told to prove her sanctity. One must be very careful when applying holiness to another. In days of old many authors would publish a disclaimer which, regrettably, is no longer in use probably because the Catholic faith is no longer in their hearts but an imitation religion, posing as Catholicity and being taught far and wide as if it represented God.

The disclaimer should read like this:

In accordance with the decree of Urban VIII, and other Sovereign Pontiffs, we declare that all the graces, revelations, and miraculous facts related in this book have only a human authority, except so far as they have been confirmed by the Holy Catholic, Apostolic, and Roman Church, to whose Infallible Judgment we submit whatever is written therein; and that, in giving to any person(s) the designation of Saint we have no thought of anticipating the decision of the Holy See, which alone has authority to pronounce to whom such character and title rightly belong.

It seems just and right to publish this disclaimer when writing about Marie Julie Jahenny or any other person deemed good or holy by the people of our modern age. It would leave the window of the intellect open for the contrary opinion which may in fact be the truth.

Without the beacon of light (the Papacy) to lead us in these matters it is extremely difficult to see and understand if the stories told about Marie Julie Jahenny are true stories or fabrications. However, when you make some comparisons with scripture and the lives of canonized saints then you begin to shed some light on a matter very well kept in the dark.

Saint Paul warned us of the man of sin who would arrive:

“...in all power, and signs, and lying wonders, And in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish; because they receive not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.” (2 Thessolonians 2, 9-10)

We must be very carefully alert in order to keep ourselves from being deceived into a devotion to a falsehood. This falsehood changes us into a nauseating quasi Catholicity with no real faith in the true God but full of fantastic stories and lying wonders to solicit our souls for the father of lies hiding in the darkness.

SOME STRANGE FACTS

It is recorded how one day Marie Julie knew by revelation that her sacrifice would begin in two days. Jesus supposedly told her: "You will stay in your armchair; there, new crucifixions of suffering will come to keep you company, one by one." Two days later she began a "martyrdom" that would last several years. She was literally stuck in the armchair! Her family wanted to put her to bed one evening. It was impossible; she was nailed to her chair of pain by an invisible force that was heavier than a block of marble. She then told them they would be able to put her to bed only at one in the morning and when that time came she became as light as a feather!

Where in the lives of the saints do you find something so odd as that? It sounds more like she was possessed by a devil but it gets worse.

"On Thursday I was at La Fraudais at about eleven thirty. While I was addressing a few words to Marie Julie on the love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, she went into ecstasy, then all of a sudden exclaimed: "The Crucifix at the end of my bed is bleeding." I turned at once and saw on the picture a gush of blood about two centimenter. I called Angele, (Marie Julie's sister) who like me saw the prodigy. While I was occupied looking at the picture I noticed that Marie Julie had her lips glued to her crucifix and seemed to be drinking. I approached her anc clearly saw red blood on the Crucifix and on the lipes of our dear victim. Who said to me as she stretched out her hand: 'Father, give me quickly my other Crucified Love, your Crucifix.' I gave it to her and she at once drank in the same fashion. After a few moments she added: 'My Jesus tells you to purify the two crucifixes with y our consecrated fingers.' With a blessed cloth I then purified the two crucifixes that were all red and with red blood. Then Marie Julie said to me: 'My Jesus wants you to purify my lips reddened with His adorable blood.' I then took the cloth by each end and pressed it on the lips of the seer." (Prophecies of Marie Julie Jahenny, page 13, page 9)

It is a known attribute of God that He doesn't perform unnecessary miracles. Drinking blood out of a Crucifix is not just unheard of in the lives of the Saints but it is also gruesome and very Satanic sounding. Indeed, it sounds more like the modern idea of a vampire!

Our Lord did invite Saint Catherine of Siena to drink His Precious Blood. Nonetheless, these miracles always took place in a Catholic Church while Marie Julie Jahenny never had any "miraculous" episodes that are widely acclaimed anywhere but inside her home. There were a great many miracles after the death of Saint Catherine of Siena yet there are none by invoking Jahenny.

Marie Julie Jahenny reported to have witnessed: "The Eternal Father then comes down and says to His Divine Son: "My will is this: THAT ALL SINNERS AND IMPIOUS ARE TO BE DESTROYED" (The Prophecies of Marie Julie Jahenny, page 57) – This is contrary to the scriptures in many different places. Here are two of them:

EZECHIEL 18, 23: "Is it my will that a sinner should die, saith the Lord God, and not that he should be converted from his ways and live?

Genesis 8, 21: "And the Lord smelled a sweet savour, and said: I will no more curse the earth for the sake of man: for the imagination and thought of man's heart are prone to evil from his youth: therefore I will no more destroy every living soul as I have done."

If you are an honest inquirer into the cult of Marie Julie Jahenny then you must admit this last fact is enough to hammer the nail into the coffin. It is absolutely unacceptable to teach something against the scriptures and expect to be regarded as a solid Catholic of faith and morals. This coupled with the vampire like sucking of blood from a crucifix and the frozen position in her easy chair every day for years only to be released at 1 a.m. (ritualistic Satanism) should be more than enough for honest seeking people to be appalled and turned away from it. Lying wonders!

Yet you will provide a host of so called miracles and the elaborate story of her childhood and how good and virtuous a woman she was. Indeed! Did you know her personally? Have you absolute certainty she was not a dupe of Satan? Are you certain the devils cannot put marks on a person's hands that look like a stigmata? Are you sure she didn't mutilate herself? You may ask then why she would go to such great lengths. It wasn't necessarily her but the devils that possessed her that took her to such great lengths in order to provide "proof" of certain lies which were then being established in preparation for the new religion which was beginning and well on its way before Marie Julie died.

WHAT FALSEHOODS DID SHE TEACH?

Anne Marie Taigi is a totally different story of her own. Whether or not we are being lied to in her regard is not the subject of this article. However, Marie Julie was stealing the prophecies of Anne Marie Taigi and adding a flair of her own. Marie Julie Jahenny taught there would one day be a great king that would come and save everybody from the current morbid demise of mankind. This great king or "the great monarch" would come at the same time as "the great pontiff." Anne Marie Taigi told those around her those two men were living in her own day (Pope Pius IX was certainly the Pontiff) yet Marie Julie tells us they are in the future. Modern day quasi Catholics love to combine the two of them – maintaining the lie that they are yet to come in the future. This not only keeps people hoping in the infidels now occupying Rome as some kind of true authority who can bring order and peace back to the world but it also keeps souls tied to the false church and therefore secures their perdition. This is the motive of her lies.

Another lie is the "imminent" three days of darkness. True, Anne Marie Taigi also mentioned the same thing and it was left somewhat up to us to decipher in what manner this three days would take place. However, judging from the same chapter of Genesis which we quoted from before it is OBVIOUSLY NOT A PHYSICAL DARKNESS:

"And the Lord smelled a sweet savour, and said: I will no more curse the earth for the sake of man: for the imagination and thought of man's heart are prone to evil from his youth: therefore I will no more destroy every living soul as I have done. All the days of the earth, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, night and day, shall not cease." (Genesis 8, 21)

In a futile attempt at saving the now sinking and decapitated cult of Marie Julie Jahenny (a religion in itself) somebody might bring up the 3 days of total darkness brought over the land of Egypt. However, this darkness was brought over the land of Egypt and not over the whole world:

And the Lord said to Moses: Stretch out thy hand towards heaven: and may there be darkness upon the land of Egypt, so thick that it may be felt. And Moses stretched forth his hand towards heaven: and there came horrible darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. No man saw his brother, nor moved himself out of the place where he was: but wheresoever the children of Israel dwelt there was light. (Exodus 10, 21-22)

If indeed there was a prophecy of a good and virtuous woman named Anne Marie Taigi of some kind of 3 days of darkness and only those with blessed candles will be able to see anything it is obviously a spiritual darkness and not a physical one. In fact, we are so far into the darkness now it is impossible to not understand this once the lies of Marie Julie are torn from the eyes and the light of truth shines on the morbidity of her life and her teachings. In truth, the 3 days can be symbolic of the time period in which we have darkness without the light of the Papacy to guide us and during this time only the blessed candles or those who seek and find real Catholic truth will be able to see and discern the true God.

Marie Julie Jahenny also promoted a purple scapular. This scapular teaches false doctrine:

First of all, on the approved Scapular of the Dolors of Mary we find the Virgin Mary holding the right arm of Jesus outward. The right arm represents the spiritual. In Our Lord's regard it represents His Kingship. In this scapular it is as if Our Lady is showing us what Jesus has done for us and asking us why we do not let Him reign spiritually in our souls by avoiding sin. The left hand represents the temporal, worldly and of the flesh. Remember, God will separate the sheep to the right hand and the goats to the left. If you examine the purple scapular you will find the image of "Mary", in a subtle way, holding out the LEFT arm of "Jesus". This is no accident, the Devil knows what he is doing. Also, notice how on the Scapular of the Dolors of Mary the Blessed Virgin Mary is already with her crown as Queen with 12 stars around her haloed head. The purple scapular has "Mary", evidently distracted as she looks away from "Jesus", sitting erected with not even a halo about her head - only an ugly off colored veil and an even uglier cloak. Overall the purple scapular is a mockery of the scapular of the seven dolors.

SCAPULAR OF THE SEVEN DOLORS

UNAPPROVED JAHENNY PURPLE SCAPULAR

Saint Vincent Ferrer said we would have to know the scriptures in our fight against Antichrist! Here are just a few quotes from the Douay-Rheims Bible about the right arm/ hand of the Lord:

Psalms 43:4

For they got not the possession of the land by their own sword: neither did their own arm save them. But thy right hand and thy arm, and the light of thy countenance: because thou wast pleased with them.

Isaias (Isaiah) 63:12

He that brought out Moses by the right hand, by the arm of his majesty: that divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name.

Isaias (Isaiah) 62:8

The Lord hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength: Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thy enemies: and the sons of the strangers shall not drink thy wine, for which thou hast laboured.

CONCLUSION

If you are familiar with our website, you will have seen the lie of it all rather easily. For others there will be a time of disbelief and perhaps of being disgruntled a little bit. Don't let this deter you. Pray and do your own due diligence. Perhaps you do not understand completely. If you do not understand you might think I have been talking nonsense. Probably, too, if you do not understand me, you are one whose attention I have hitherto secured under false pretense. For, was not your eye caught, and the spirit within you stirred, by the title of this article? Yet this article has been about Marie Julie Jahenny in the light of Catholic truth and the conclusion is not a positive one for Marie Julie.

Burn your purple scapulars and forget anything that comes from Marie Julie Jahenny! Dearly beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits if they be of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. By this is the spirit of God known. (1 John 4, 1-2) In place of the purple scapular wear the brown scapular, the scapular of the seven dolors, the miraculous medal or the Saint Benedict medal. Pray the Rosary and have confidence in these approved sacramentals. They do not have to be blessed to be efficacious!

It is imperative that souls be warned of this very harmful liar. The Catholic Church would always make strenuous efforts to verify the veracity of apparitions. The fact the new church has not listed the errors this short article has listed is yet more evidence it is an impostor or imitation church, standing in for the exiled Catholic Church. If you have any more questions regarding the current apostasy in Rome go to our website, where there are many free articles to help you along the way to finding true liberty - without attachment to cults and movements claiming to be Catholic but fusing your soul to the church of Satan by way of the back door.

Then if any man shall say to you: Lo here is Christ, or there, do not believe him. For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders, insomuch as to deceive (if possible) even the elect. Behold I have told it to you, beforehand. If therefore they shall say to you: Behold he is in the desert, go ye not out: Behold he is in the closets, believe it not. (Matthew 24, 23-26)
